Thursday, May 2nd

Good Morning Fassett Eagles, please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance:

Lunch for today is Chicken drumstick, dinner roll, mashed potatoes with gravy, cauliflower, banana and milk.

Today during Eagle Time is School wide writing. Please remember to include a topic sentence, at least two supporting details and a concluding sentence.

Today is Ohio State Testing for students taking Algebra 1. Good luck to those students testing. Students please continue to be quiet in the hallways and at your lockers during 1st - 3rd periods today so those students testing have a calm and distraction free environment for testing.

Testing Tip #8: Remember to read the questions carefully. Underline important words. Reread the question and read through all of the answers before making a choice. Eliminate answers that do not make sense. Check over your answers.

Have you seen the large orange bin in the front hallway? The Letter Carriers are doing a National Food Donation Drive until May 10th, and are asking for help to fill that bin. For every food item you give your Eagle Time teacher, you will earn one point for your house. Please do not put items in the bin, or else your house points will not be counted! you can bring in canned food or boxed food items until Friday, May 10th!

Sports news: The track teams competed at Napoleon last night in their last regular season meet of the season. It was a great night to compete and many athletes PR'd.
