As the holiday season approaches, Coy student council will start to collect canned food for the Oregon Health and Welfare Advisory Committee to help those in need. We here at Coy Elementary believe in giving back and helping those that are less fortunate in hopes of bringing those families some holiday cheer. We will start collecting cans on Monday, November 14th and go until Monday, November 21st. We will be holding a friendly competition amongst the grade levels here at Coy. Boxes will be displayed in each grade level hallway, and student council will collect, count, and tally the cans each day! The grade level that brings in the most cans will receive a special treat! Please consider donating canned foods to help our community.
