SAFETY DRILLS

It is important to know that our school does many safety drills throughout the course of the school year. We vacate the building monthly for fire drills, we practice safety alerts/lockdown drills quarterly, we practice tornado drills in the spring and we practice a complete school evacuation at the beginning of the school year. The complete evacuation happened today. Our staff is also ALICE (Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, Evacuate) trained and the staff discusses what ALICE means with students. Please take note below how we perform our drills throughout the school year so that you may further discuss with your child.

Fire Drills - Fire drills happen monthly. All classrooms exit out their designated fire escape route. If a child is going/coming from the restroom and is not in proximity with the rest of his/her class, he/she may have to join another class to exit the building out the quickest route.

Safety Alert/Lockdown Drills - Safety alerts/lockdown drills are scheduled quarterly with our school resource officers throughout the school year. Teachers are not told when safety alerts/lockdown drills will occur. Teachers review alerts/drills with the students as each has varying directions. School resource officers walk the building during our safety alerts/lockdown drills.

Tornado Drills - Tornado drills occur in the spring. During these drills, students all move down to our lower level and hunker down. All students sit on the hallway floors in the back part of our building.

School Evacuation - We practice a complete school evacuation at the beginning of the school year with our school resource officers. During this evacuation, students exit the building through the front doors and walk toward Pickle Road. Officers are there to meet the students and discuss when an evacuation could be needed. Officers also point out Coy's rally points. Our rally points, should an evacuation occur, are Prince of Peace Lutheran Church and the Oregon Public Library.

We did have our first school evacuation drill this past Thursday. Please ask your child about the drill.
