Message from the Principal

It is 6th grade camp week! We are excited about the trip and will see them off on Monday morning and welcome them back on Friday!

Parents of 5th grade students, we are planning on going to camp again next year. The cost this year was $220 which could go up some, but should be relatively close. Each year we hope our whole 6th grade class will be able to go.

Please be sure to double check the form your student brought home indicating where he/she should be dropped off on Monday morning. Please note not all students will leave from Eisenhower.

Have a great week, all!

Sincerely,

Tim Holcombe

Eisenhower's First Eagle Hang-out Delivers Fun Time to Connect With Others

On Thursday, January 25th, we had our first Eagle Hang-out at Eisenhower! Over 175 students attended and spent time in four different stations interacting and having fun with friends!

Thank you very much to Mr. Ralph, Mrs. Nadolny, and all the teachers who planned and helped with this event. There were many great things about the afternoon. Three things stood out, in particular. One was the awesome behavior and participation of all the students who attended. Each was encouraged that the only way for fun for all was participation by all. Participation, smiles, and including others was prevalent and awesome! The second thing that stood out was the organization and energy by the teachers while interacting with the groups! Thank you Mr. Ralph and Mrs. Nadolny for planning! Thank you to all the teachers who led groups and who participated in the afternoon. And thank you to Officer Shaw for her work in keeping everyone in the parking lot. The third thing that stood out was the outstanding patience and kindness of parents at pick-up! Thank you for abiding by the plan and making this one of our smoothest pick-ups ever! Thank you!

Students participated in a tennis activity in the gym, karaoke and friend bingo in the cafeteria, teamwork games in the main hallway, and an Uno tournament in the cafeteria. Enjoy some of the photos below. Thank you again, all, for an excellent afternoon!
