Message from the Principal

The beginning of the school year is filled with firsts for the year. Our first Eisenhower Parents and Staff for Students Organization (EPSSO) meeting will be Monday, September 9th at 6:00 in the Eisenhower Media Center. I hope you consider attending as we see this as a tremendous opportunity to develop strong home/school communication. We will keep our meetings to one hour with the following format:

- 20–30 minutes presentation on an Eisenhower Intermediate School topics. At our first meeting we will do some introductions and discuss the foundations we are building EIS upon. We will use this time to present items that will help you understand what is happening on a daily basis with your student. One item of particular interest will be an introduction to our Connections time.

- 30 minute EPSSO meeting in which we will discuss upcoming events and plan for them.

We hope that you will join us! We will discuss committees that will function this year and you will have an opportunity to be on a committee and/or chair a committee. However, we will not pressure anyone to be a part of a committee. We really would love to have a great turnout as each meeting will focus on our meeting mission: share building information that will be helpful and informative to parents in order to better the Eisenhower Intermediate School experience for our students. Please join us Monday, the 9th at 6:00!

EPSSO hosts a Facebook page that you can access as well. They do a nice job of maintaining it and adding information.

Thank you for a great start to the year!

Sincerely,

Tim Holcombe

- Security and safety are a continuously a concern that all schools are working on. When you come to the office to pick up your child, please have your I.D. available. In addition, if someone else is coming to pick up your child, please note that they must be on the Emergency contacts list.
- Thank you to Officer Shaw for being a daily presence in the side parking lot at drop-off and at pick-up! Those processes are going well! Please remember to pull up as far as possible when dropping off or picking up so other parents can drop/pick up their child in the drop/pick-up zone. Obviously, not every child can be dropped off or picked up right in front of the door so thank you very much for allowing as many people in the zone as possible. Thank you!

Notes About Grading and Assessments at Eisenhower
What is Academic Practice?

Students today understand what it means to practice. Many of our students are involved in music, sports, or clubs, which require them to practice skills to make improvements. We want to help our students make this same connection regarding the importance of academic practice. Practice allows us to become better readers, scientists, and mathematicians. Practice also allows our students to receive the coaching needed to improve their academics. Student work is analyzed by teachers to determine growth and improvement towards mastery of a specific skill or content. So, if a student chooses to not do an assignment, not only are they missing an opportunity to practice a skill and receive feedback, they also miss an opportunity to display mastery of a standard.

Additionally, students should be afforded the opportunity to practice a skill before they are graded on it. This is why academic practice is not calculated into a student’s grade. We want to encourage students to show what they know and can do. We believe that this practice is essential to student learning.

Homework is a concept that has not always been about practicing towards mastery, but instead often became a measure of willingness to complete tasks. Our shift in focus is aimed at using ungraded academic practice as a tool towards mastery learning.

A few important points when checking a student’s grades:

Student grades are determined by two categories of marks in PowerSchool. In PowerSchool, you will notice assignments marked as formative or summative assessments. Formative assessments monitor student progress for the purpose of assisting teachers in guiding student learning. Formative assessments are assessments FOR learning that are used to guide the path to learning and do not weight heavily in the final grade. These assessments should be help teachers and students intervene before the final summative assessments.

Summative assessments are measurements taken to see if students have met the requirements of standard which allow teachers to communicate a student’s progress on the content standards. Summative assessments weigh the most on the final grade, because they come after a lot of practice and guidance. When a student does not perform well on a summative assessment, they have the opportunity for a retest to demonstrate mastery of the content.

There is a copy of the re-test contract on page 26 of the Student/Parent Handbook found inside your student’s planner.

Please feel free to call with any questions!
Notes from PE:

Just a few quick reminders from Ms. Stevens:

- Although athletic clothes are allowed as part of the dress code, please be sure that your child has PE clothes to change into for PE class. The amount of activity in PE class dictates that a change of clothes occurs after activity. We have been stressing hygiene this year as it relates to changing after strenuous activity.
- "Fresh Clothes Fridays" has been established for our PE classes to remember to always bring in fresh clothes every Friday and then take home old clothes (for those who don't do it daily). The main thing is to have students bring clean clothes in prior to taking old clothes home (so they always have a change of clothes in their locker).
- Due to student allergies and upper respiratory issues, please note that NO aerosol or spray perfumes or colognes should be used in the locker rooms.

Thank you for your help with this!
