

JANICE FABIAN WALLAKE (66)

Professional artist from Tucson, AZ

Author of “Watercolor: Pour It On” (Northlight Books)

Featured in: “The Artist’s” magazine

“American Artist” magazine

“Splash 8” and “Splash 13”

“Painting Flowers in Watercolor”

“The Watercolorist’s Answer Book”

Featured in two hour-long watercolor painting videos

Stars in a 6-part TV series

Signature member of:

Minnesota Watercolor Society (also Past Pres.)

Northern Plains Watercolor Society

Red River Watercolor Society

Transparent Watercolor Society of America

Founder of

on-line watercolor painting instruction
(now available on www.artistsnetwork.tv)

Judge and juror of National and International Art Exhibitions

Instructor of watercolor painting workshops all over the world

Listed in “Who’s Who in American Art”

Winner of the prestigious National Watercolor Society Award

www.wallakegallery.com

Google: Jan Fabian Wallake

Published Book. Author/Artist, Jan Fabian Wallake

Listed in "Who's Who in American Art"

Jan has an impressive resume in the field of Fine Art. A book has been published on her regarding her unique art style and she has become a sought-after speaker and judge of national and International Fine Art exhibitions. She has shared her knowledge with audiences all over the world.

She has a BFA from Bowling Green State University.

Worked as an Art Director/ Graphic Designer for Focus Unlimited Advertising in Toledo for many years.

Jan founded and operated her own design studio for several years until she began her career as a fine artist, painting for galleries.

She was "Miss Toledo" in the Miss Ohio/Miss America Pageant, 1968.

Jan was a graphic designer and art director before becoming a full-time watercolor artist. She has a long list of awards and is also a dedicated teacher. Her instruction has been published in "Watercolor", "American Artist" and "The Artist's" Magazine, as well as her book, "Watercolor: Pour it On".

She created an on-line art instruction site called, PaintPal” and partnered with the Artist’s Network TV (Golden Peak Media) to teach her skills on a global scale. She has taught painting workshops work all over the world. As a professional artist and instructor for 25+ years, she has generously shared her talent and knowledge with upcoming artists all over the world.

She now lives in Tucson, AZ.